The first instance of the word "iniquity" in the Bible is from Cain (Genesis 4:13). How did Cain's choices throughout the early Genesis narrative constitute iniquity? In other words, how did he trade good for evil?