

Why did God choose Israel?

God needed a people in a place with a purpose to bring to pass the prophecies for the promise of the Messiah.

But what does that mean?

God needed a people in a place

↓                      ↓
(Israel)    (Canaan)

with a purpose to bring to pass the prophecies

↓    ↓
(Preserve God's Word) (Curse removal and new creation)

for the promise of the Messiah.

↓    ↓
(Gen 3:15)    (King Jesus)

By God's power He used Israel to bring forth the Messiah.

We can, therefore, praise God for His faithfulness and the faithfulness of our forefathers—that remnant who remained true to Him during that Old Covenant period.